Milestones of the Associated Programme on Flood Management (APFM)

2001 -- 2003 Launch of the Associated Programme on Flood Development of a Concept Management Paper on Integrated Flood Management (IFM) 2005 First national strategy on flood 2006 management co-developed by Testing community approaches APFM in Kenya to flood management Launch of the IFM Tools series 2007 Zambia introduces their IFM Strategy 2009 Recognition of the IFM Concept by the World Meteorological Congress Establishment of the IFM HelpDesk 2013 The Integrated Drought Management 2014 Programme (IDMP) is founded Support to the development of the Mexican national strategy Start of the pilot project "Communityon flood management Based Approaches to Flood Management in Thailand and Lao PDR" Supporting the development and implementation of IPA FLOODS 2016 Global Competition for 2017 Youth-Led Projects on Flood Writing a Guidance Document and Drought Management on IFM Strategies Implementation of a new government structure: The Support Base Partners 2019 APFM supports the Climate Risk The Volta Flood and Drought Early Warning System (CREWS) Management Project 2020 WMO reform and inclusion of APFM in the workplan of the Standing 2023 -Committee on Hydrological Services Setting up and operating a community of practice on end-to-end early warning systems for flood forecasting - 2024 Expanding the scope of the IFM HelpDesk to provide guidance on additional topics related to Integrated Water Resources Management

